The 3 BEST Suisun Valley Wineries

1

Tolenas Winery 4185 Chadbourne Road Fairfield, CA

Tolenas is a casual and family-oriented winery that offers a superb selection of wines. At the top of the list is a White Pinot Noir, which they call “Eclipse”. This wine is incredibly versatile and is made using a specialized process. Ask them the Eclipse story when you plan your next weekend wine tasting there! They offer outdoor seating in a white, picket-fenced garden surrounding the stunning Tolenas house. Don’t forget to bring a picnic!

Wooden Valley Winery 4756 Suisun Valley Rd
Fairfield, CA

If you're touring around SV, you have to take a visit to the winery that started it all. That winery is Wooden Valley, and you get that impression as soon as you walk through the large wooden doors and into a beautiful tasting room full of an incredible selection wines. They recently added more indoor and outdoor seating which makes them a perfect place to visit any time of year!

Caymus-Suisun 4991 Suisun Valley Rd Fairfield, CA

Making their name in the Napa Valley, Caymus recently put down roots in the Suisun Valley. Now, they're one of the premiere wineries in the area. Not only do they boast an impressive selection of top-notch wines at a wide range of prices, but the winery itself is an architectural sight to behold. Book well in advance as their weekend appointments go quick. Add on a cheese platter while you're at it!
